

(a) the machine: a converging--diverging nozzle (throat radius $y_t = 1$ m here)

(b) what it does to the gas, measured along the wall: pressure into speed

(c) why an optimum exists at all: the exit pressure crosses the ambient

